Healthy relationships come from finding strength, worth, and value in God.

SERMON OUTLINE

1. Much of life is determined by relationships. They are important.
2. If our worth and value are found in God, we can have healthy relationships.
3. Jesus modeled a life of being loved by the Father.
4. If we consider the depth of God's forgiveness in our lives, we will be able to forgive others.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

2. Do you believe the Father has spoken value and worth to you? If yes, how so? If not, why not?
3. Name one difference it would make in your relationships if you understood how God values and loves you.
4. We all have times where it is extremely difficult to forgive someone. Describe a situation when it was difficult for you to forgive in the past. Or were you able to forgive?
