BIG IDEA

The best apologetic is love.

OUTLINE

1. Love before you give an answer.
2. Love when you give an answer.
3. Love after you give an answer.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In what ways can you show an action of love to your family members? Neighbor? Co-worker? Homeless?
2. Would these actions of love be consistent with who people know you to be already? Why or why not?
3. If someone asked you about the "why", would you be ready to tell your spiritual story in 30-60 seconds? Take a moment and share it with someone in your group.
4. Why is it important to show love in our answers? Does love always look the same in every situation?
5. Who have you had a conversation with recently that you need to follow up with?
6. Why is love the best apologetic?
